TOP NOTCH

These people, two shifts of custodians, and the laundry women, give what it takes to keep our building clean and functioning properly. The cafeteria women rise to the challenge of serving more than a thousand lunches a day.

SEVENTH GRADE

SPORTS

ACTION!

Students who attended contests and rooted for our Tigers saw plenty of action. And much more often than not, Jackson Tigers won!

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

2ND IN CONFERENCE FRESHMEN

EIGHTH GRADE—LEAGUE CHAMPS

WINNING FOOTBALL

Coach Tom Kurzhal's seventh grade team, pictured at top, won the league championship. At left is a shot of the 8th grade game against Brown. Above, a picture from a freshman varsity game.

The girls' ninth grade volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Becky Stafford, practiced hard and was a hard-working team, as evidenced by their season of eight wins and three losses.

Maria Lemanski, a high-scoring player, was caught by the camera on her action in a smashing serve.

COACH NOWICKI'S DIV. 2 CHAMPS

COACH TOTH'S TEAM 1

ON RILEY TEAMS

These ambitious athletes gave extra strength to Riley teams. Mark Appenzeller qualified for the state meet in the 500 yd. free and two relays. Becky Sell set records in the 200 and 500 free. Steve Wimmer is number three man on the varsity tennis team.

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

The game was postponed once too often, and was played in winter-like temperatures instead of the expected Indian summer weather.

INDOOR SPORTS

Until we met the energy crunch, winter weather was no deterrent to active sports. Mat maids, top left, aided the wrestling team. Bobby Frison, top right. Pictured above, the bowling league sponsored by Human Relations. Right, J. Werntz.

ELEGANT FACULTY VOLLEYBALL TEAM

CHIC STUDENTS VOLLEYBALL TEAM

CHEERING SECTION

Coached by Mrs. Kelsch, above, the seventh grade cheerleaders, top, and eighth grade cheerleaders livened things up at pep assemblies.

CHEER! CHEER!

Ninth grade varsity, above, and reserve cheerleaders, right, urged their teams on to victory.

INSTRUMENTAL

SEVENTH HOUR BAND

BAND: PERIODS 1-2-5-6-9

J.M.S. ORCHESTRA

SEVENTH GRADE ORCHESTRA

VOCAL MUSIC

Pictured at top, the altos of the Jackson Middle School Choir.

“MUSIC HATH CHARMS”

And so do these makers of music. Above, the sopranos.

VOCAL MUSIC

“OH RATS” CAST

“Oh Rats,” written by Mrs. Miller.

DRAMA

The classroom presentations of Miss Titus's drama class brought down the house.

SERVICES

Student volunteers donate hundreds of hours each year to help keep Jackson running smoothly. At top, office assistants, middle lunchroom workers, below, library helpers.

STUDENT COUNCIL

HUMAN RESOURCE CLUB

JOURNALISM

Energetic members of the two journalism classes helped put together the yearbook and school paper. Above, the 7th hour journalism class, minus Scott Bourdon, pictured at right. Scott's camera work for both publications was invaluable.

FRESHMAN ELECTIVES

ASSEMBLIES

Science students were treated to a NASA Space Exhibit, left. Ninth graders particularly enjoyed Johnalita White's attentions to favored members of the audience, below.

AMAZING!

Science classes at J.M.S. were amazed by the magic faucet, amused by the visiting boa, and bemused by the weather project.

AROUND JACKSON

Plenty of time was spent on academics, left, but students did relax with teachers, above. Some learned poise through dancing, top.

HURRY!

With only five minutes passing time, conscientious students moved quickly to get from one class to another. Wrestlers, below, ran for a different reason.

HOME FOR TIGERS

A fish-eye lens shot of the gymnasium, top.
The gym is in use nine hours a day, five days a week, and often on Saturdays.

FAMILIAR HALLS

Mr. Berta's camera caught Jackson's halls before the arrival of students, top, and the more usual scenes, right and above.
